Financially fit fair for seniors set for today

February 9, 2009 - 10:50 AM
Staff report

State Treasurer Dean Martin will unveil the new guide, "50 Ways to Stay Financially Fit Beyond 50," today at the second annual Financial and Benefits Fair, sponsored by the Investment Club of Sun City West.

The fair is from 4 to 8 p.m. at the Palm Ridge Recreation Center, 13800 W. Deer Valley Drive, and the focus this year will be on ways seniors can protect themselves in a bad economy and tough market.

In addition to Martin, Maricopa County Assessor Keith Russell and other financial and benefits experts will attend.

Several financial firms including Chase, Fidelity and Certified Financial Plan Association will have exhibits at the fair.
